Paul Simon's parents would kvetch to their son, "You practice guitar for six hours a day when you should be studying. What do you want to be, a musician?" Of course, they had no way of knowing that their son would become one of the outstanding singer-songwriters of the 20th century. Come and hear about Paul's childhood friendship with Art Garfunkel, their early efforts as a musical duo, and their role in the folk music revival of the 'sixties up to the time of The Sound of Silence and their first album released in 1964, titled Wednesday Morning, 3 AM. This is a free presentation. All in the community are welcome and encouraged to attend. Please note and respect that our centre is scent free. Please register in person or call Front Reception to reserve your spot.
