A Message From Your Executive Director, Monique Doolittle-Romas

Welcome to the summer edition of The Good Companions bulletin.

The Good Companions will be working in partnership with four Community Support Services to provide free transportation for vaccine appointments. You can book your transportation using this link: <https://www.communityhomesupport.ca/vaccine-transportation> or by calling 211.

Our Annual General Meeting will be held on Monday, June 13th, 2022 at 3pm. The meeting will be both in person and virtual this year. We hope that you will join us. Please contact us for the registration details.

We are pleased to introduce you to members who recently joined our staff team. Lisa Hollingshead is our new Acting Ontario Lead Coordinator for the Seniors' Centre Without Walls Expansion Team. Lisa brings her experience working with seniors at both The Dementia Society of Ottawa and Renfrew County and KDS Village, an independent living senior's apartment building, where she had a number of responsibilities including: administration, community engagement, event management and fundraising. Playing a key role in large events, such as the Event Manager for the Walk for Dementia, an Event Services Team Member for sporting events like the Grey Cup and the Brier, and a Planning Team member for H.O.P.E Volleyball, is something she truly enjoys. Adrienne Huffin joined our team as the Resource and Network Developer for the Seniors' Centre Without Walls Expansion Team. Adrienne brings solid information management skills and exceptional relationship-building experience. Her technical experience includes database management (CIMS/Procura), MS Office software, and experience developing website and social media content. Adrienne is also a certified PSW with a demonstrated passion for supporting seniors by advocating and utilizing community resources to meet their care needs. We are also pleased to announce that Laurie Pacey will be staying with our TGC team. Laurie has transitioned from the Day Centre team to the Administration team where she is working in Finance. Welcome Lisa, Adrienne and Laurie!

Our TGC team welcomed a new member; Rachel Sutcliffe, Ontario Lead Coordinator, her husband Mike and big sister Maddie welcomed beautiful Emily Rose on April 13th. Both mom and baby are doing well!

We want to thank our Executive Committee and Board of Directors for their support and guidance throughout the past year. Their leadership and commitment have allowed our team to respond to needs. Please join me in recognizing Seán K. Kelly, President; Paul Kearns, Vice President; Stacy Levac, Vice President Property; Leah Canning, Secretary; Jason Kempt, Treasurer; Stephanie Keats, Past President (resigned) and our Directors; Cathy Collett, Steve Ilnicki (resigned), Maria McKay, Brian Robertson and Jeff Doll.

I want to recognize our staff team. They have worked tirelessly to support you, our members, clients and volunteers over the past two years. They worked six days per week to prepare meals and hampers, they provided transportation to vaccine clinics, they hosted a Flu Vaccine clinic with Ottawa Public Health, they made thousands of check-in calls every month, they hosted hundreds of virtual classes, they registered members for programs and classes, they connected and engaged with our volunteers, they ensured that all business matters were taken care of, they hosted our Adult Day Program virtually and assisted families with respite, they developed and delivered virtual and in person programs for LGBTQ2+ seniors, they opened our Seniors' Centre Without Walls program to all seniors in the city and then trained other agencies to deliver Seniors' Centre Without Walls. This is just a small listing of all of their work. And then of course they offered all of our programs in person from August 2021 to December 2021 and since February 28th, 2022. They are so dedicated to all of you and I am incredibly proud to work with each and every one of them.

Eva has been a staff member with TGC for twenty-three and a half years. She has always ensured that members receive a hot meal and a homemade bowl of soup. She always takes the time to speak with everyone and to ensure that our members are well. We are grateful for Eva's dedication and support of our members, clients and volunteers. We want to thank her for her career with TGC and wish her much happiness in her retirement!

This summer at Saturday programming, we'll be slowly expanding programming to include more activities. Get in touch with me if you are an LGBTQ2+ Senior who's interested in volunteering, particularly if you are interested in sharing some of your knowledge or interests by leading a workshop or activity.

No Internet? No problem!

Seniors' Centre Without Walls (SCWW) is community centre that you can access from the comfort of home— all you need is a telephone!

Using multi-person phone conversations, we offer a wide variety of health & wellness and educational presentations, brain-stimulating activities, musical events, and exciting conversation with peers. It will feel like you're sitting in a room full of friends, but they are at home... just like you!

Our participants say it best:

"The program makes my life more interesting. SCWW was a saving grace for me during COVID when I couldn't leave the house."

"I am more aware of what is going on in the community, particularly within The Good Companions."

"I like that you don't have to be dressed up for SCWW! You can relax and learn something."

"Because of this program, I know what community means. Before joining, community was just a word to me, but now I truly understand it."

Need a mask? We've got you covered!

There is increasing scientific evidence of the effectiveness of masks to prevent community transmission of COVID-19, which is why the City of Ottawa has extended the mandatory mask bylaw into 2022.

Masks must be worn at The Good Companions.

If you are in need of a face mask, please contact us and we would be happy to provide you with one.

Special thanks to the many staff and volunteers who sewed and donated masks, as well as to Canada Sews East Ontario, Conquer COVID-19, the City of Ottawa and the United Way East Ontario for their donations of masks to help keep our clients and members safe.

Discussing Downsizing with your Parents

Discussing downsizing with your parents can be a daunting task and we are here to help. The Chell Team has extensive experience helping families buy and sell homes at many different phases of life. We have worked with clients buying their first home, and years later, we have helped them sell their home as they downsize. We can help you navigate through difficult conversations so that they are caring and sensitive. We want to ensure that everyone feels heard, supported and confident of the recommended way to move forward. Ultimately, a well prepared and thoughtful conversation will avoid unnecessary stress on the family relationship, and the potential move.

Approaching the Conversation

A family meeting will help to clarify the current situation, and to ensure that everyone is on the same page. It is very important to work as a team so everything goes smoothly and all concerns are addressed. Timing the conversation is critical. We do not recommend having this conversation around traditional family holidays even though it could be convenient with all stakeholders available. While everyone may be together on Thanksgiving, we would recommend you focus on the joyfulness of being together rather than broaching a sometimes difficult and tenuous subject. When it is the appropriate time to introduce the conversation, one potential opener could be the current economic situation or local trends. For example, a news piece on Baby Boomers relocating to downtown neighbourhoods, or a new development for seniors.

This can build the foundation to get input and go from there. We also regularly publish reports on Ottawa real estate, Ottawa community resources, homes for sale in Ottawa and Ottawa neighbourhoods to help you initiate the discussion.

The Next Home

What is the reason for downsizing? Is this the move that will enable them to age gracefully in a comfortable and secure place? Or is it an interim move to give them some freedom and the ability to do things that weren't possible when raising a family in a larger home?

If the reason is to attain a simpler lifestyle with access to amenities, an apartment in an active neighbourhood may be a good choice. If mobility is an issue, living on one floor with access to an elevator will make life safer and simpler to manage. If your parent(s) would prefer some services and social activities, a retirement community could be a good fit.

Timing

Many clients feel relieved once their parents have chosen the way forward, and in turn their parents have the security of getting their affairs in order so they can focus on enjoying their time.

Having taken the time to discuss options also enables you to also get the market timing right for the home you are selling. This is particularly important if you need to purchase another property and coordinate the move. The Chell Team wants to ensure you get a good price for both.

Getting the property ready for sale

If you need to move quickly to match the market, storage can be a good solution. It enables you to empty the house for any necessary staging and gives your parents time to decide what to keep at a later date.

Decluttering can be more emotional and it takes time. Referring to any object as junk can be very offensive, when to another, it carries great sentimental value. It will make the moving process smoother and more enjoyable for all by respecting personal boundaries and giving the time needed to store, downsize and gift items to family members, close friends and charitable organizations.

Goals for the Next Home

While it can be sad to move on from a family home, a new home offers many exciting opportunities that may have been overlooked when the focus was on a family property. The Chell Team can help create a vision for the next home and keep everyone focused on the positive aspects of this new stage.
